New Hartford, NY January 18, 2009 -- Kate Walsh (Dr. Addison Montgomery) and Amy Brenneman (Dr. Violet Turner) of ABC Studios' "Private Practice" wore jewelry made by local artist Judith Goldstone in the episode that aired Thursday, January 15, 2009.

"When a stylist from the show contacted me last fall to purchase some of my jewelry I was speechless," said Judi Goldstone, owner and designer of Judith Goldstone Designs. "She then commented that the staff thought my jewelry was beautiful. I was on Cloud 9 for days!"

Kate Walsh wore a long tassel necklace of multi-colored freshwater pearls and Swarovski crystals that can also be worn as a cuff bracelet. Amy Brenneman wore a pair of multi-colored Swarovski crystal and gold cascade earrings.

Judith Goldstone Designs offers elegant and distinctive handmade designs created by Judi Goldstone. She works mainly with sterling silver or 14kt gold fill, semi-precious stones and crystals.

The company was founded in 2005 to provide jewelry for the customers at her bridal store in New Hartford. Since selling the store, Judi's creations can be found in the gift shop at Munson Williams Proctor Arts Institute and on the company's website: www.judithgoldstonedesigns.com.
